NOTES AND NEWS

The first session of the Institute of Politics, dealing with the general subject of international relations (see this JOURNAL, Vol. XVIII, No. 2, Notes and News), will be held at Williamstown, Mass., from Thursday, July 28, until Saturday, August 27, 1921.

A partial list of those who will deliver lecture courses extending throughout the session follows: The Right Honorable Viscount James Bryce, England; Baron Sergius A. Korff, Russia; Stephen Panaretoff, Bulgaria; and, unless unavoidably detained, Luis M. Drago, Argentina; and Josef Redlich, Austria.

A partial list of those who will conduct round-table conferences is as follows: Isaiah Bowman, director of the American Geographical Society; Professor Archibald C. Coolidge, of Harvard; Norman H. Davis, former Under Secretary of State; Professor James W. Garner, of the University of Illinois; Professor Jesse S. Reeves, of the University of Michigan; Professor Frank W. Taussig, of Harvard; and Professor George G. Wilson, of Harvard. Professors E. H. Haskins and R. H. Lord, of Harvard, will probably alternate with Mr. Bowman and Professor Coolidge, respectively.

In addition to the formal lectures and round-table conferences there will be occasional addresses by visitors of national and international reputation.

The lectures and addresses will be open to the public and all are cordially invited.

The round-table conferences will be limited to duly enrolled members of the Institute. Each member will be assigned to one or two round-table courses and will be given an opportunity to indicate the course or courses which he prefers to take. The round-table conferences will be conducted after the manner of graduate seminars. It is the intention to so limit the number in each group and to so assign the members of the Institute to the various groups that each member will be able to contribute to the discussion.

Those desiring further information can obtain it from the secretary of the Institute, Professor Karl Ephraim Weston, of Williams College
